1. Answering apps usually cost twenty-nine to one hundred ninety-nine dollars a month. Here's what to check before you trial one.

2 It must work with your current number, text back missed callers with a message you can edit, answer from your own information, and say at the start of the call that it's an AI.

3 It also passes callers to a person or takes a message, sends you a summary of every call, and lets you leave month to month with your records.

4 Walk away from any app that won't say it's an AI, wants a long contract before a trial, or offers to take card payments by phone.
