1. Run the staff quiz right after the training. It takes about five minutes.

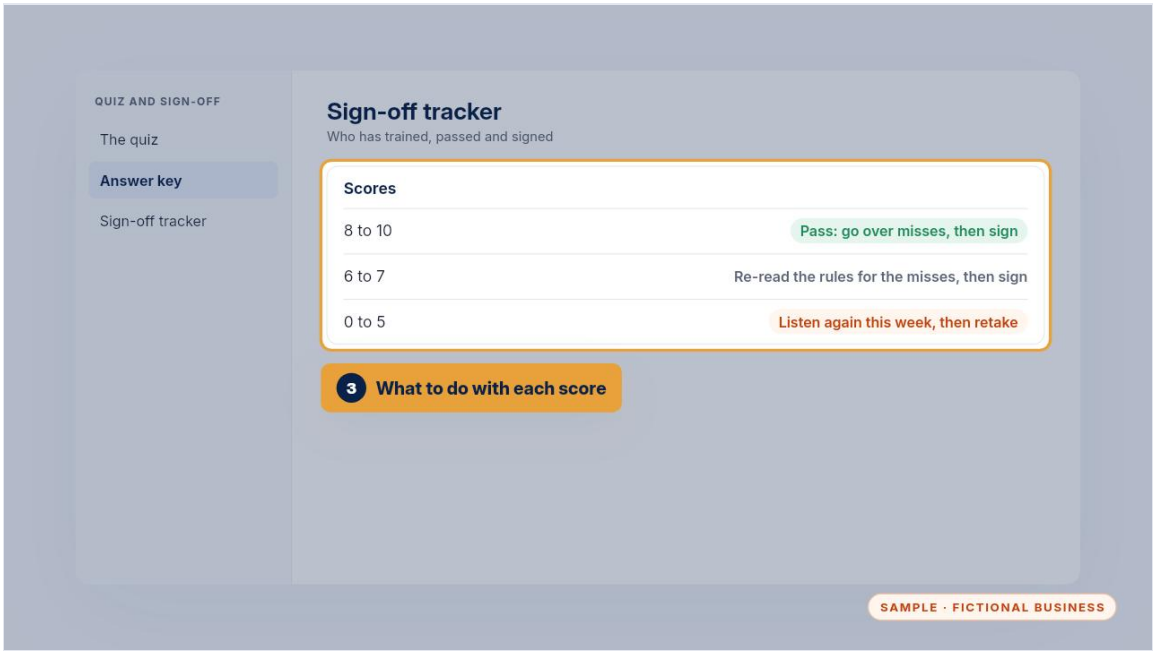

2 Read each question out loud. Everyone circles one answer on their own sheet.

3 Then go through the answer key together. Each answer has one line on why, to read out when someone misses it.

4 Ask everyone to write their name and the date first, and keep the answer key with whoever runs the quiz until everyone has finished.

5 Eight to ten is a pass. Six or seven means re read the rules for the misses, then sign. Five or less means listen to the training again that week and retake the quiz.
